Little Britain star's big dummy spit at babe bash

LITTLE Britain comic David Walliams lashed out at paparazzi in Sydney yesterday, moments before reuniting with former flame Emily Scott.

The zany funnyman slipped silently into a crowd gathered at Australia Square to watch Scott be crowned FHM's Sexiest Aussie Babe — but exploded when spotted by snappers.

Walliams lunged at one photographer, screaming abuse and trying to knock his camera to the ground, before fleeing through the nearby foodcourt.

Meanwhile Scott, oblivious to any drama, was basking in the glow of the flashbulbs, glamming it up for the cameras and admiring fans.

She was soon brought up to speed though when Walliams reappeared after the event and whisked her off to lunch at The Summit restaurant.

The couple, who split in December, have been in constant contact

— but haven't seen each other — since Walliams arrived Down Under for a tour with comedy cohort Matt Lucas.

A second potential scuffle at the beach babe bash was avoided when both Lara Bingle and Alex Fevola refused to attend.

Confidential last week revealed Bingle turned down her invite after learning Fevola, who accused the young blonde of destroying her marriage, would be there.

She needn't have bothered — Fevola backed out of the event yesterday morning, just a few hours before she was scheduled to appear in front of the cameras.

Lads' mag FHM, which hosted the glamour gig, refused to comment on the last minute cancellation, but a Confidential source claims Fevola feared being queried about her relationship with Bingle.

"She didn't really want to be up against Lara Bingle," they said. "She just wants to do her own thing."
